DOES THE CHURCH REALLY NEED THE OLD TESTAMENT?

Personal Spirituality in Hebraic Perspectives

CMJ Conference 2012

Dr Marvin Wilson is Professor of Biblical and Theological Studies at Gordon College, Wenham in America. His teaching specialty is Old Testament, Jewish Studies and the Hebraic origins of Christianity.

Dr. Wilson is an active writer, having authored or edited nine books, including one of the all-time best-selling textbooks in the field of religion, Our Father Abraham: Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith. It was this book which led to a TV documentary entitled Jews & Christians: A Journey of Faith. Dr Wilson authored a detailed Study Guide to accompany the programme, which is used among churches, synagogues and interfaith groups.

As well as teaching and writing, Dr Wilson labours extensively to build bridges of understanding and respect between Christians and Jews.
